

WSU Faculty Development Seminar Series 2007-2008

The Office of the Vice President for Research (OVPR), in conjunction with the Office of the Provost and the Graduate School, is hosting a series of free seminars for faculty, post-docs and new departmental chairs.

The scheduled seminars are as follows:

Helpful Tips on Achieving Promotion and Tenure at WSU

November 30, 1 to 2:30

Spencer M. Partrich Auditorium at the Law School

WSU's Promotion and Tenure Process Step-by-Step

December 14, 1:30 to 3

Welcome Center Auditorium

Roles and Expectations in Mentoring Relationships

January 11, 1 to 2:30

Welcome Center Auditorium

What Makes a Good Mentor?

February 1, 1 to 2:30

Welcome Center Auditorium

How to Start Up and Run a Lab

February 22, 1 to 2:30

Spencer M. Partrich Auditorium at the Law School

Key Elements of Research Compliance

March 7, 1 to 2:30

Spencer M. Partrich Auditorium at the Law School

Working with Sponsored Program Administration

March 21, 1 to 2:30

Spencer M. Partrich Auditorium at the Law School

Please contact Sarah James at sjames@wayne.edu to attend these free lectures or if you have additional questions. More seminars are in the process of being scheduled, so please check the Announcements section of OVPR's web site for updates: <http://research.wayne.edu/>.